

SPEECH OF SENATOR JOOLITTLE.

Senator Doolittle on the Political Crisis. Senator Doolittle, of Wisconsin, delivered a speech in the City Hall, Milwaukee, on the evening of the 24th ult. The following is a report of his remarks:

Mr. President and Fellow-Citizens:—For some months past I have been absent from my native land. I have been removed from the exciting scenes of political strife. I have hardly read the political newspapers of my own country, but during these months I have had leisure to read much upon the situation of our beloved country. From all the reflection and thought which I could bring to bear upon it, I have been confirmed in the belief, which was forced upon me more than two years ago, namely, that the policy which was then proposed by Mr. Lincoln immediately upon the surrender of the armies of the Rebellion, to recognize at once the States of the South, to have them restored to their constitutional rights, and to their representation in the Union, was the only just, the only wise, the only constitutional policy. (Applause.)

From that time forward I have suggested to carry that policy into effect. I believed then, and I am now more than ever firm in the opinion, that if, two years ago, immediately upon the surrender of the armies of the Rebellion, the States of the South had been recognized with their constitutional rights, and admitted to their representation in the Union, under the policy of Mr. Lincoln, all the difficulties which now surround us, both financial and political, would have passed away. (Applause.) I will state this fact, which I hope no one present will forget—I have met no one present in Europe who has not expressed the same opinion, that if our States of the South had been admitted to representation in the Union, that the whole world would see that we were one people, one nation, with all the States represented and taking part in our legislation, our six per cent. bonds would not only be at par, but would command a premium in gold. Why not? Why should not the American securities, at one per cent, command a high premium in gold, when the English three per cent, command ninety-three per cent, in gold? No earthly reason can be given, except that the States are apparently divided and disinterested, that the States of the South are kept out of the Union by this radical policy. I charge this home to the leaders of that policy. The whole responsibility rests upon that radical policy, which, trampling the Constitution under its feet, violates their pledged faith and the policy of Mr. Lincoln, the often avowed policy which elected him, refused to allow to ten States of the Union all right to representation. (Applause.)

It is not my purpose to detain you for any length of time. I only wish to express in a few sentences two or three thoughts. The great, all-absorbing idea which underlies radicalism is precisely the same idea which underlies secession. (Applause.) What is that idea? Let us not deceive ourselves. Ideas rule the world. What was the idea which led the South into this Rebellion? It was this: The Constitution has no authority over the Southern States against their will; they have a right to withdraw from the authority of the Constitution at pleasure, and therefore, after the passage of their ordinances of secession, the Constitution was practically dead in the States of the South. The people of the South went to war to enforce that idea. (Applause.)

We maintained precisely the opposite idea to wit:—That the Constitution has supreme authority over the States of the South as well as of the North, and that the States of the South should be made to acknowledge the supremacy of the Constitution. To maintain that idea we called two millions of men to the field. We poured out our treasure and our blood like water. To maintain that idea we created a debt of three thousand millions of dollars. To maintain that idea we have lost a hundred thousand of our sons went down to battle and to death. By the blessing of God we were victorious in maintaining that idea of the supremacy of the Constitution over the States of the South when we, at length, after a long and terrible war of four years, compelled the South to surrender to that idea; when we compelled the people of those States who made their appeal to the God of Hosts to decide the question between us to surrender the controversy; when the South yielded and acknowledged the Constitution to be supreme, and that the flag of the United States was the flag to which they must advance; when up rises Thaddeus Stevens, Charles Sumner, Benjamin Wade, and other radicals of the North, to proclaim the idea of the secessionists, that the Constitution is no longer the supreme law of the land in the States of the South; that we do not hold the States of the South by constitutional authority; that we hold them by the sword and the sword alone; not under the Constitution, but outside the Constitution, by a power which is above the Constitution. That is the idea of radicalism. It is not only alien to, but it is identical with the idea of secession. It is the essence of rebellion against the Constitution of the United States. Whether it is asserted by Jefferson Davis at the South or by Thaddeus Stevens at the North, it is a new rebellion against the Government of the United States. (Applause.) We have by force put down the Rebellion of the Secessionists at the South. We do not expect to be compelled to put down this new rebellion at the North by force of arms. (Applause.) We expect to put it down by moral power alone, by argument, by reason, by persuasion, as we have done in Connecticut, in California, in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, by the power of the ballot-box. (Great applause.) Mr. President, I will not detain you any longer. I trust the friends who will rise in the majesty of their strength, and by their moral power, by calm reason, by earnest and truthful argument, and by their votes proclaim again the supremacy of the Constitution of the United States in the States of the South, not only in spite of the radical anarchists and revolutionists in the North. (Great applause.) I can very well see by the election returns that a change has come over the spirit of the country. When I come to Racine now, the place where I have lived for fifteen years, I am not met by an infuriated mob who would prevent me from speaking to the people of my own town. (Great applause.) A mighty change is being wrought. (Cheers and great applause.) If I attend a meeting in the neighborhood of Keosauqua, to proclaim these doctrines there, in which I believe the very existence of constitutional liberty to us and to our children is involved, there will be no one to interrupt and insult me, to prevent their utterance, or to interfere with me in any manner. (Applause.) Why this change? Simply the work of time. Men are beginning to reflect, to reason, to think for themselves. The excitement and passions and prejudices which were engendered are passing away, and cool, dispassionate judgment is once more asserting its legitimate sway. I thank God for what I already see, and I think we shall have occasion to be yet more prolonged applause.) (Great and prolonged applause.)

FROM EUROPE THIS P. M. THE ITALIAN QUESTION. Government of Prussia Neutral at Present. The Papal Forces Assume the Defensive. Market Reports to Two o'clock. The Steamers St. Andrew and Manhattan Arrived Out. Disaster to a Propeller Near Dunkirk. Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc.

FROM EUROPE BY CABLE. Noon Report of Markets. LONDON, Nov. 4.—Noon.—Consols, 94 1/2, 6-20s, 60 1/2; Illinois Central, 81; Erie Railroad, 46 1/2. LIVERPOOL, Nov. 4.—Noon.—Cotton unchanged. Sales of 8000 bales. Breadstuffs dull. ANWERP, Nov. 2.—Petroleum quiet at 49 1/2. Arrival of Steamers. GLASGOW, Nov. 4.—The steamship St. Andrew, from Quebec, has arrived here. QUEENSTOWN, Nov. 4.—The steamship Manhattan, from New York, has arrived at this port.

The Italian Question. LONDON, Nov. 4.—Noon.—The proposition to settle the Roman question by a popular vote of the people was not Napoleon's idea, but was spoken of as a suggestion of Italy, Prussia, and France. PARIS, Nov. 4.—Noon.—The Monteur says M. Monnier has sent a note to the French Charge d'Affaires at Florence, in which he says the Italian advance into the Papal territory is a violation of law and of the treaty, and that Napoleon will not approve of it by word or by silence. He is also directed to ask an explanation of the Italian Government. Only two French reinforcements are in Rome. LONDON, Nov. 4.—Noon.—The Papal forces will assume the offensive immediately. Late despatches just received from Florence state that the vote of the towns and provinces of Rome are unanimous for Italy.

It is now reported that the Emperor Napoleon requires King Victor Emanuel to expel Garibaldi, and if that is done he (Napoleon) will retire. BERLIN, Nov. 4.—Noon.—Bismark says officially, to-day, that the Government of Prussia is neutral at present on the Roman question. LONDON, Nov. 4.—2 P. M.—Consols have declined 1/16th; United States Five-twenties advanced 1/2. LIVERPOOL, Nov. 4.—2 P. M.—Tallow 44s. 9d.; common rosin, 8s. 3 1/2; other articles are unchanged.

Ship News. DENVER, N. Y., Nov. 4.—The propeller Akema, belonging to the Western Transportation Company, founded and sunk twenty miles off this port this morning. Two of her hands have just arrived here. One of her boats was picked up by a small boat of the revenue cutter Commodore Perry, now lying here. The small boat, containing the captain and nine men, is yet to be heard from. The boat was safe at seven bells this morning (8:30 o'clock), and is supposed to have landed somewhere near Silver Creek. The Akema had a full cargo on board when she went down. FARTHER POINT, Nov. 4.—The steamship St. George, from Liverpool, arrived here, en route for Quebec, this morning.
